National News—1965

1 A Wave for Friends—Cuban refugees waved to Cuban exiles on shore as their coast guard cutter approached Key West last fall. Such emotional scenes occurred frequently after Castro announced his "open door" policy, allowing certain groups of Cubans to leave his dictatorship.

2 Pioneer in Space—Astronaut Edward White stepped from his Gemini IV space capsule and into the void of space last June. Maj. James McDivitt, his companion on a 3½-day orbital flight, had to coax White back into the capsule after he had traveled 20 minutes suspended from Gemini IV. Gordon Cooper and Charles Conrad were the next space twins to orbit the earth. They completed their 8-day flight in Gemini V during August.

3 Medicare Bill Signed—President Johnson signed the Medicare Bill into law July 30 with former President Truman at his side. Witnessing the event that had far-reaching effects on Social Security benefits for the elderly were (left to right) Lady Bird Johnson, Vice President Humphrey and Bess Truman. The ceremony was held in Truman Library in Independence, Mo.

4 Temporary Mood—Dodgers Manager Walter Alston's mood of dejection after the Minnesota Twins won the sixth World Series game did not last long. The Dodgers emerged victorious in the 7th game and captured the pennant.

5 Double Space Spectacular—Astronauts Wally Schirra and Tom Stafford got this view of the Gemini 7 spaceship December 15 while traveling in their Gemini 6 craft for their historic rendezvous adventure. Schirra and Stafford rode their red-hot craft back to earth the following day, but Gemini 7 completed a 14-day mission before its re-entry. Making the longest and most significant voyage in space in Gemini 7 were Frank Borman and James Lovell, Jr.

6 Plea for Peace—Pope Paul VI stood before the United Nations General Assembly in New York on October 4 to deliver his plea for world peace. His unprecedented, one-day visit in the U.S. was the culmination of plans by men of all faiths.

7 After Surgery—President Johnson was photographed in a reclining chair at Bethesda Naval Hospital the day after his gall bladder operation on October 8. He conducted the work of his office from his hospital room and his Texas ranch during his recuperation.

8 Proud Student—Charles Craig, 19-year-old freshman at Iowa university, demonstrated his criticism of draft-card burning incidents by displaying his draft card on his jacket with the note: "I'm a draft card carrying American and proud of it." Our role in the Vietnamese war sparked the incidents.

9 Blackout—The glittering metropolis of New York City was thrust into darkness on November 9 by a massive power failure affecting hundreds of miles along the eastern seaboard. City residents and commuters were stranded in offices, railroad and subway stations for hours before service was restored. The crippling condition was caused by a faulty relay at a Canadian generating station near Niagara Falls.

10 New Ambassador—Arthur Goldberg was named U.S. Ambassador to the United Nations by the President after the death of Ambassador Adlai Stevenson on July 14 in London. Goldberg was secretary of labor under President Kennedy and a U.S. Supreme Court Justice when named to the U.N. post.

11 Startling Fashions—Bold and contrasting blocks of color were the youthful fashion note of 1965. The eye-catching designs even extended the length of campus stockings worn with the costumes.

12 Royalty on Tour—Princess Margaret and her husband, Lord Snowdon, arrived in New York on November 4 for a whirlwind tour of the U.S. During their visit, they took time out for fun-filled activities such as a ride on a cable car in Frisco and gala parties in Hollywood and the nation's capital.

W. C. Hilburn
Superintendent

Voters of the Estherville school district elect a school board to insure the education of their sons and daughters.

The members of the school board hire teachers, administrators, janitors, cooks, and other employees necessary for the efficient operation of the school.

Heading the school board is the superintendent W. C. Hilburn who is responsible for advising the board on the spending of the school budget and seeing that adopted policies are put into operation.

Walter B. Hammer
Principal

Chief co-ordinator of Estherville High School is principal Walter B. Hammer.

Mr. Hammer plans the curricula, helps select textbooks, prepares each student's schedule of classes, and oversees teachers. He is also responsible for extra-curricular activities.

In his 37 years of administrative activity, Mr. Hammer has shown loyalty to the educational field and his interest in student development.

School Keeps Administration Busy

Marvel Anderson
Secretary

Mrs. Marvel Anderson has been our secretary for 7 years.

To keep the school running smoothly, Marvel must keep track of all students, oversee the use of the office machines, take attendance each hour, make announcements in the morning and afternoon and do the regular office work that is required of a secretary.

Mrs. Anderson's job is sometimes very trying but she capably keeps the school system in top working order.

Band Festival

Festival Queen Beth Blagg

Estherville exploded in gay colors and festive sounds on Saturday, October 16, as bands played, twirlers whirled their batons, and floats rolled along, for the ninth annual Northwest Iowa Band Festival.

More than 2,000 band members (36 bands) entertained a large crowd of spectators for the morning parade and the night festivities.

Estherville High School marching band received a I rating in Class A division.

In the evening the band queen, Beth Blagg from Lincoln Central, was chosen. The Drake University marching band was on hand to give an outstanding evening performance.

Carnival Time Is Here

The entire cast receives the applause they well deserved.

Jacquot restrains Paul while Schlegel furiously assails his behavior.

The dance of the gypsies and the roustabouts relay the lovely atmosphere of the Carnival.

Capturing the mood of authentic carnival people, the drama and music departments produced the Broadway musical, "Carnival."

The story begins in an open meadow where the carnival is erected before your eyes. An orphan appears and becomes enchanted with the desire to join the glamorous carnival, once very successful but now run down and third rate.

This lonely orphan, Lili, portrayed by Jo Kokenge, tries many unsuccessful jobs with the troupe. While practicing with Marco, Rod Schumann, Lili becomes the pawn in a fierce rivalry between Marco and Paul, a puppeteer with a game leg, played by Terry Brown.

Marco wins Lili by his suave and gallant ways and this makes Paul jealous. Rosalie, played by Debby Huntsinger, who is Marco's partner, is jealous of Lili and threatens to marry Dr. Glass, Scott Bruce, who later turns out to be a veternarian instead of a medical doctor.

Paul talks to Lili through his puppets, Carrot Top, a lively red-headed boy; Renardo, a sophisticated fox; Marguerite, an elderly society lady; and Horrible Henry, a sentimental walrus. They convince Lili to join the puppet act. She finally finds her place with the puppets and chooses Paul, the lover who is true.

The two lead characters reach the climax as Paul jealously reputes Lili for her companionship with Marco.

As spectators gasp, the swords of Marco the Magnificent are thrust through the Incomparable Rosalie.

Carnival Thrills Audience

Lili chats with her friends Carrot Top, Marguerite, Renardo, and Horrible Henry.

Lili sings "Mira" as Jacquot looks on.

Schlegel and Rosalie continue bickering as Greta and her lollipop eavesdrop.

"Cheers!" as Rosalie and Schlegel decide upon a scheme.

With the combined efforts of the high school and junior college music departments, Robert Merrill's musical "Carnival," was seen on three occasions, two evening performances and one matinee.

A wonderfully refreshing show, it will not soon be forgotten by the many people who turned out for the performance.

Every presentation was a complete success, with much laughing and even a little shedding of tears.

The show, under the direction of Ted Reis, drama; Ken VanDerSloot, music; and Bonnie Yohe, choreography, was enlightening and full of energy.

Grobert willingly lends a hand to Lili as an amused Marco watches.

This year's presentation for the Children's Theatre was "Alladin." Players are Bruce Barnes, Rochelle Borchers, Jim Rosendahl, Debby Huntsinger, and Cheley Hunt.

Mrs. Mayo, Ruth Atkins, and Mary listen as Mrs. Atkins tells why Robert is such a failure at farming.

Junior and

Robert tells of his dream while Ruth and Ben listen to his last hope.

The senior class presented "Beyond the Horizon," the story of two brothers living with their parents on a New England farm. The younger, Robert, was ill most of his life and is going to sea with an uncle. His plans are changed when he discovers he's in love with the neighbor girl, Ruth. Older brother Andy goes to sea then because it was always thought he and Ruth would marry. Life on the farm for Robert is a failure and Andy loses his fortune in South America.

The junior class presented "Member of the Wedding" the story of a little girl who falls in love with her brother's wedding. She is raised by the Negro cook who realizes at the end of the story that her work is completed.

"Being part of the wedding makes me feel like a part of the whole world."

"Caught cheating again!"

Senior Actors Bring Drama to Life

Sophs Display Talents

Aha . . . !

Did you hear . . . ?

The Sophomores presented "The Lottery" the story of a town so deeply drawn into tradition they are unable to distinguish it's wrong to hold an annual lottery. Various members of the town object, but the lottery still takes place. One lady is stoned to death; her own son throws the first stone.

"He Ain't Done Right by Nell" is an old-fashioned melodrama, with a typical hero, Jack Logan, the villain, Hilton Hayes, and the heroine, "Little Nell". The villain's plan to marry Nell for her inheritance is foiled by our hero, to show that good triumphs over evil.

The characters of the "American Dream" are symbolic of present day society. The author, Edward Albe is stating that modern society is decaying--woman tends to dominate man. He accomplishes this by making everything seem so horrible, yet so funny, by exaggerating everything that goes wrong.

"I brung ya some posies, Nell."

Everybody but Grandma thinks they're right.

Choral and Band Concerts Well Received

EHS band and vocal concerts were performed before nearly capacity crowds this year.

Selections ranging from classical to semi-classical to very modern pieces were given by both musical departments.

Directors Ben Haigh, band, and Ken VanderSloot, vocal, were pleased with the presentations of the students.

Carnival Highlights Y-Teen Year

Everyone young and old loves a Carnival. Hundreds attended the annual Y-Teen Carnival which was held Saturday March 19.

Hours are spent early Saturday as girls busily prepare for the gala affair. Brightly colored booths; cake walk, make-up, candy, kitchen, kangaroo court, white elephant sale, spook house, basketball throw and other attractions are set up to thrill Carnival-goers.

Highlighting the evening of fun, frolic, and laughter is the crowning of the Y-Teen queen. A dance concludes an exciting time at the Carnival.

GRA Sponsors

Queen Marcia White and King Duane Dahna reigned over the 1965 Christmas Dance.

Christmas Dance

Music by the Take Fives was good but the decorations came drifting down during the first number. However, Mrs. Ostrem, GRA advisor, soon had the situation well under control.

Christmas Royalty led the first dance.

The annual Christmas Dance, sponsored by the GRA, was held December 23 in the high school cafeteria. The 1965 Christmas Court consisted of five girls selected by the GRA and five boys elected by the E-Club. At the height of the evening Marcia White and Duane Dahna were crowned 1965 Christmas King and Queen.

Music was provided by the Take Fives, a band consisting of junior college and high school students.

Joyce Williams took charge of the Wine Punch.

Theme for the junior-senior prom of 1966 was "Days of Wine and Roses."

In keeping with the theme, the band played "Days of Wine and Roses" and decorations were done in burgundy and white, the senior class colors.

Following the banquet and dance were night-long activities which included the show, a teen dance, bowling, playing pool and tennis, and the early morning breakfast.

It was a most enjoyable evening for all who participated.

Class of 1966 Leaves EHS

One hundred sixty-eight seniors composed the EHS Class of 1966. These people attained one of their lifetime goals--receiving a high school diploma.

Jack Shelley delivered the Commencement address. He challenged the graduates to climb one step higher in the educational world.

Class valedictorian was Tom Moklestad and salutatorian was Debby Huntsinger. They spoke to their classmates on Class Day, at which time the will and prophecy were also given.

Nine members of the class boasted gold cords in recognition of their 3.5 or over average throughout high school.

Juniors Alana Iler and Steve Matre led the Processional and Recessional.

With the assistance of Mr. Hammer, the student council is the governing body of EHS. It consists of one representative from each sophomore and junior homeroom and six from the senior class. These representatives met Wednesday mornings in the guidance room to decide on various school issues.

Among some of its activities, this year's council chose Girls of the Month, passed the quorum amendment to the Constitution, sponsored Sloppy Day in which $145 was collected for the Roger Kaltved Fund, helped on Back to School Night for the parents, and participated in leadership conferences.

Presiding at council meetings was Tim Halstead, president; and in his absence, Bill Carlson, vice president. Jan Sanders recorded the minutes of each meeting.

Pepper Editor, Barbara Petersen and Advisor, Miss Patrick

The Pepper is published with the assistance of Miss Patrick by the journalism students of EHS. They produce feature articles and editorials which are printed each Saturday in the "Estherville Daily News."

Approximately twenty-five students participated in journalism class, and others were on the staff as an extra-curricular activity. The Pepper stories covered every phase of school life including classes and extracurricular activities. The editors changed weekly during the first semester; Barb Petersen assumed the position as editor-in-chief second semester.

The Spanish Club fulfilled its purpose to teach its members about foreign nations and different cultures in several different ways. A float, which depicted life in a Spanish-speaking country, was presented in the Homecoming Parade. The old Spanish Christmas custom of a pinata, filled with candy and nuts, was observed at the Christmas party held by members of the club. The highlight of the year was the Spanish Fiesta. At this event, several vocal solos, a skit, a Spanish Comparse, and a film were presented, all of which were in the Spanish language. In these and other ways members learned about other cultures.

Director Ken VanderSloot displays exasperation over Varsity Chorus' renditions.

Varsity Chorus' Year a Success

Estherville Varsity Chorus enjoyed an eventful and successful year.

The chorus presented two concerts, spring and winter. As has become traditional with the EHS music department, the chorus made a recording of the spring concert.

In December the chorus traveled to Mankato to participate in KEYC-TV's "Sounds of Christmas" program.

Varsity Chorus received a I rating at the State Music Contest held in Milford April 22.

Members of the Madrigal represented EHS at the National Music Convention in Kansas City.

Y-Teen girls board bus to attend Foreign Student Day in Des Moines.

Many Girls Participate

Y-Teens, a Christian service organization is open to all girls in high school. This year they sponsored a foster daughter from the Phillipines, offered a full scholarship to EJC, and held a Christmas party for children.

The highlight of the year was the annual Y-Teen Carnival. Through the year the girls host several banquets honoring their parents and grandmothers. Boxes of candy were sold by senior Y-Teens to finance their tip to the Ice Follies in Minneapolis. They also went to Des Moines to the Foreign Student Day.

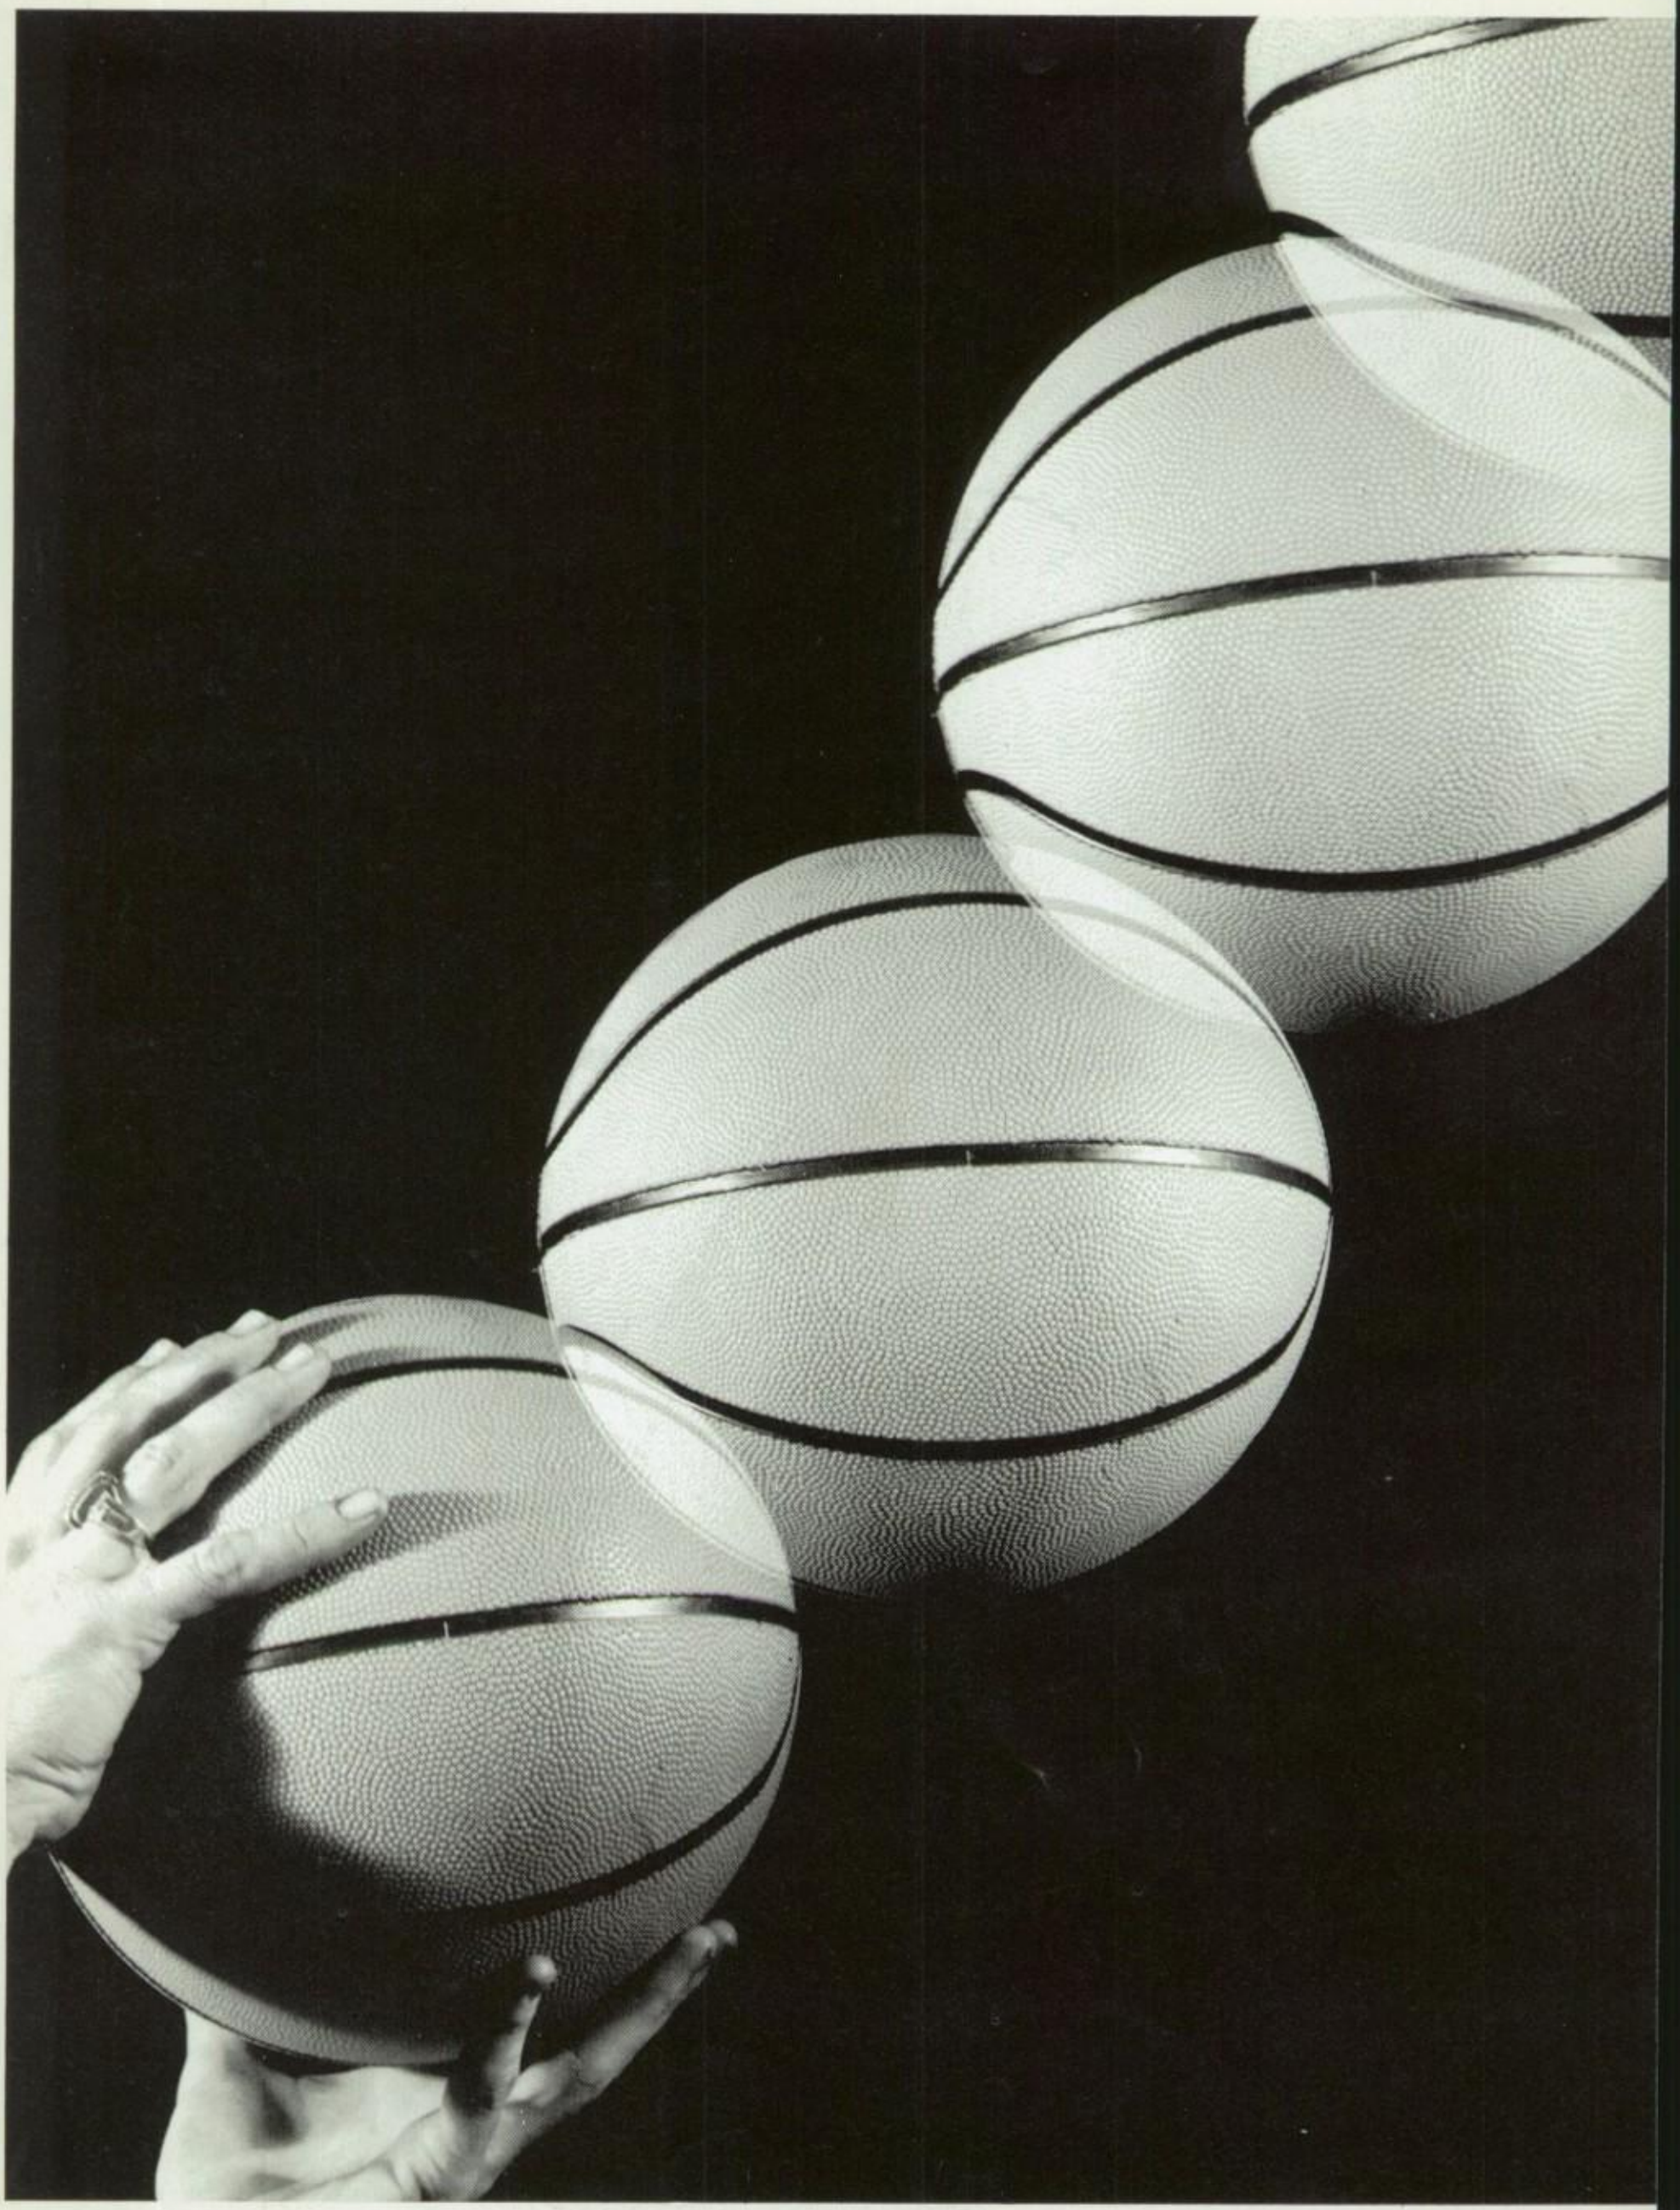
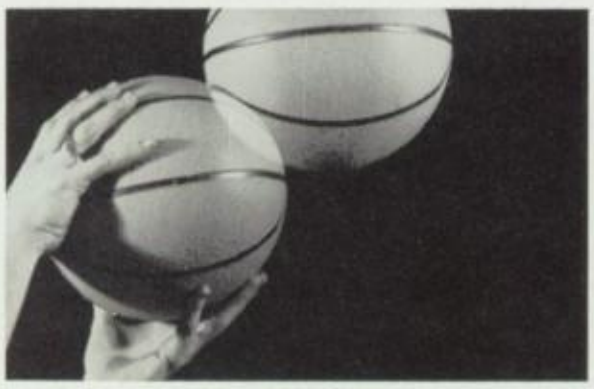
in Y-Teens, GRA

GRA Officers, Marcia White, Nancy Wilson, and Pat Bothwell

GRA, Girls Recreation Association, is an athletic organization open to all interested high school girls. Their activities included play days with other GRA clubs, a Mother-Daughter Play Day, Sports Night, the Christmas Dance and inter-class competition. Members of the group met Thursdays after school to engage in various athletic activities.



ATHLETICS



Senior looks of triumph are shown by Terry Aalborg, Tom Theophilus, Blaine Schenck, Jim Fraser, Duane Dahna, Alan Bolty, and Craig Neppl as they carry Coach Uknes off the field after becoming conference champs.

Football Boys Win Conference!

"We've got the greatest team!" This cheer was made especially for the 1965-66 football squad which earned conference co-champ badges for their letter jackets and a trophy for the showcase. The only and a most deeply felt loss was at Storm Lake where 7 seconds and one point prevented the squad from being undefeated. It did not prevent the Midgets from being ranked best offensive and defensive team in the Conference, however. Eight players gained berth on All-Conference teams: Terry Aalborg, Doug Twigg, Mike Saul, Blaine Schenck, Al Bolty, Craig Neppl, Duane Dahna, and Roger Guge.

Dahna and Schenck tackle a Sheldon Orab as teammates rush in to assist on the play.

Helping in the Indian Massacre at Spirit Lake are Loos, Moyer, Hood, Clark, and Kinnard.

Dan Hood charges through enemy line.

Sunde, Dahna, Aalborg, Saul, and Twigg hustle to obtain the pigskin during a real cliff-hanger with Storm Lake.

The George Hess--coached Midgets ended a fine season with an 8-6 conference record giving them title to fourth place in the Lakes Conference behind champions Storm Lake and Spencer, and third place Cherokee.

The Midgets non-conference record was 2-2, winning games from Fairmont and Pocahontas Catholic and losing to Algona and Algona Garrigan.

The cagers turned in one of their best performances at the Storm Lake game, beating them 69-60. It was at this well-remembered game that Roger Guge broke a school scoring record for points scored in one game by netting 31 points.

Estherville placed three players on the All Lakes Conference team, Al Bolty, Roger Guge, and Joe Myers.

Joe Myers displays the hustle for which he was noted during the season.

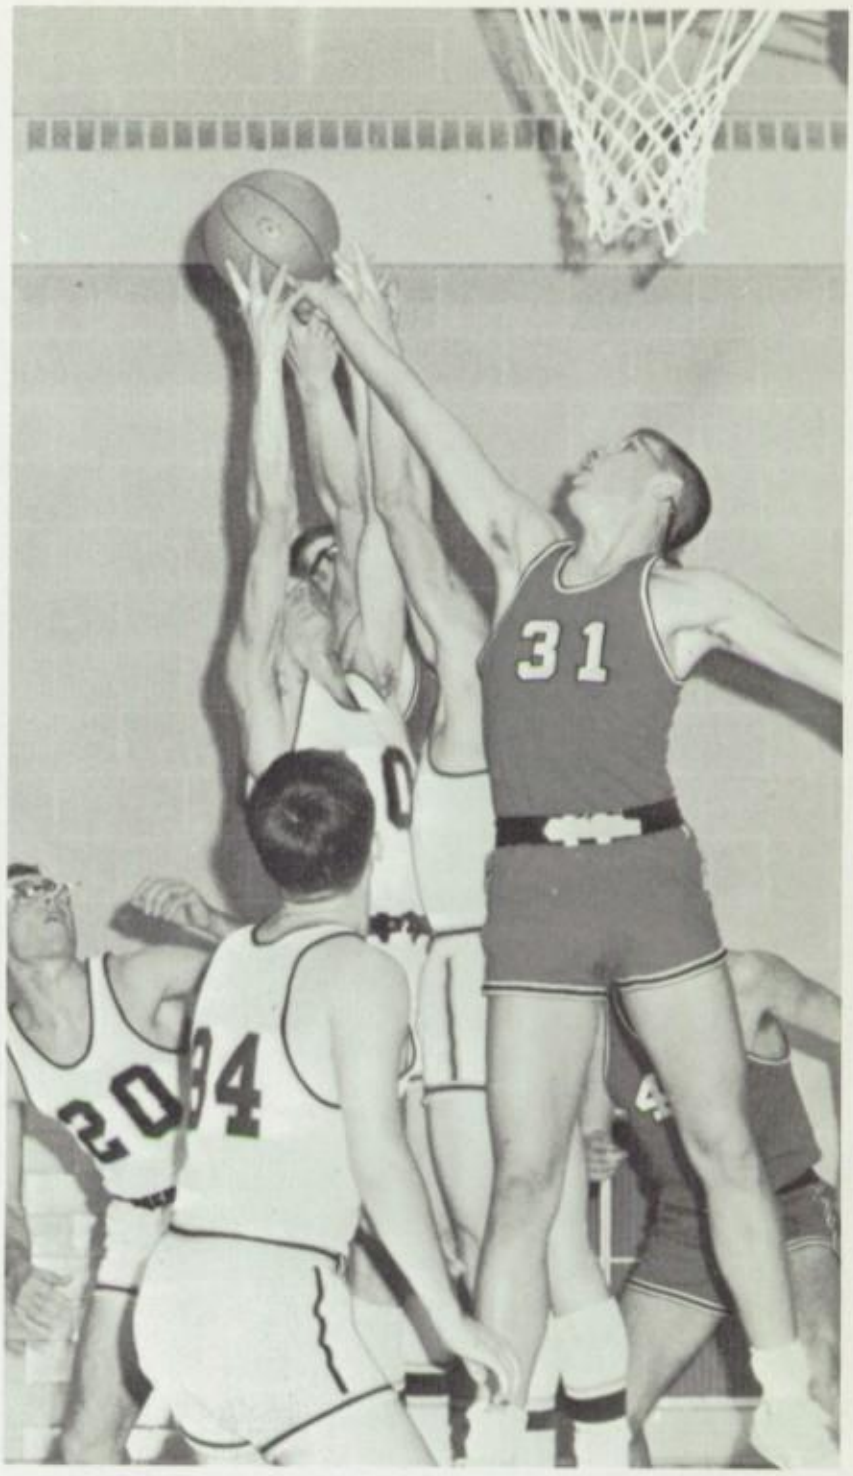
Get 'Em Midgets

Returning players helped the Midgets strength in this year's basketball team. These boys were Roger Guge, Alan Bolty, Duane Dahna, Joe Myers, Tom Moklestad, and Dale Brandt.

Triumphant victories over Spencer, Cherokee, and Storm Lake at one time boosted the morale of the team and its fans. The boys put forth effort which paid off in fine ball played throughout the season.



Robby Hammond jumps high to steal the ball away.

Alan Bolty sends it up for two more points.

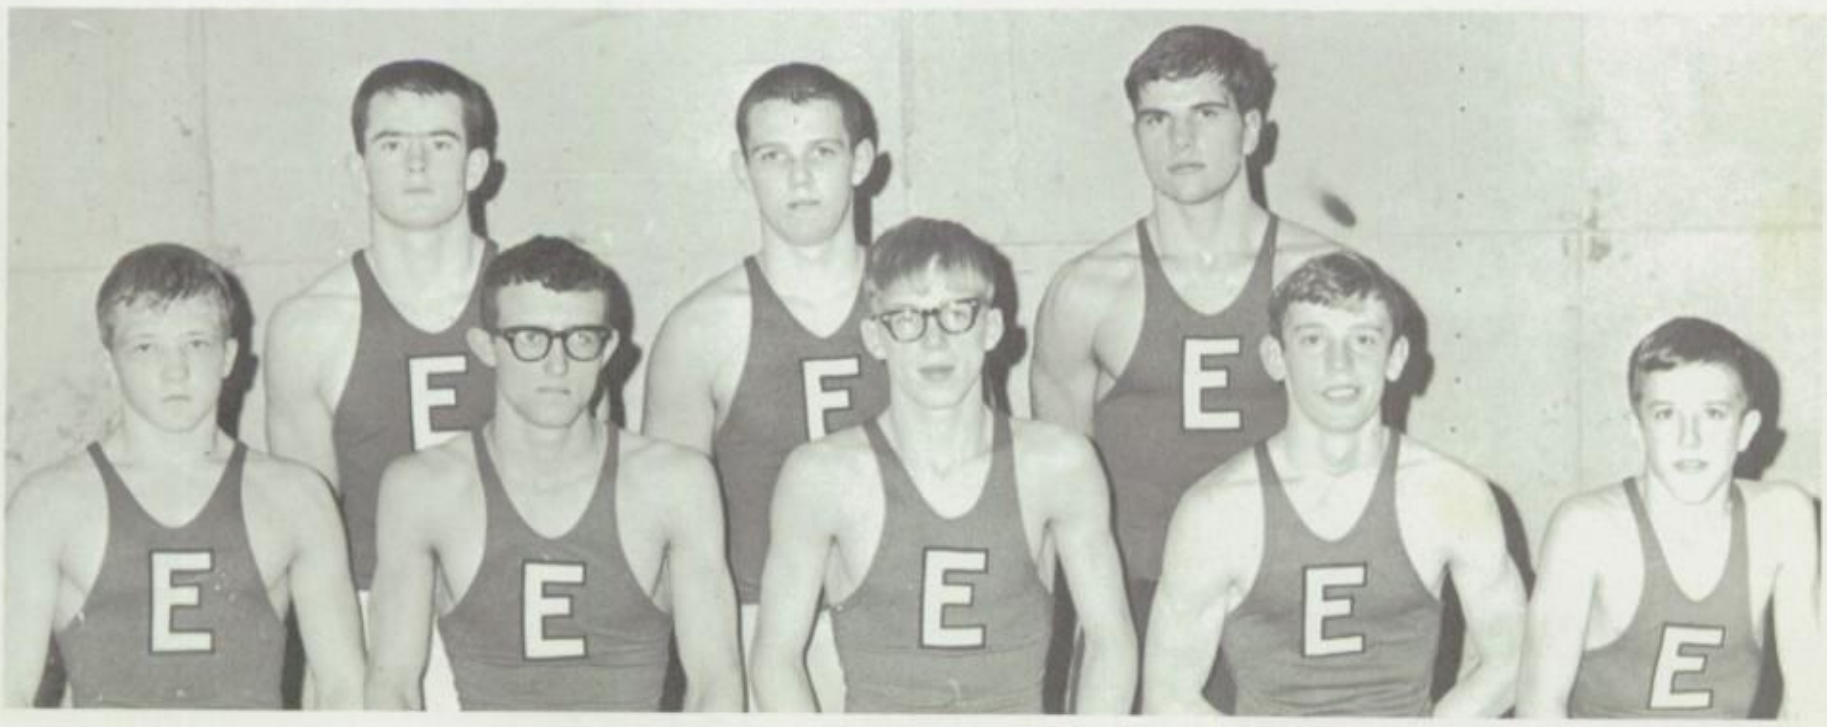
A picture is worth a thousand words.

EHS grapplers finished the 1966 season with a record of three wins and nine losses. Coach Hugho Drake feels the boys have improved as a team and will be tougher competition in years to come.

Blaine Schenck, returning grappler, wrestled to gain third place in state competition.

In a tight squeeze



Gene Omundson, Mel Summa, David Dalen, Tim Clark, Steve Peterson, Blain Schenck, Steve Heywood, Jeff Anderson

Dick Bahr has represented EHS as a pole vaulter for three years.

Track Squad Worked Hard

Eight returning lettermen helped to strengthen this year's track squad. The main highlights of the year were the district track meet at Sioux City, at which the 880-yard relay team and Duane Dahna in the 100-yard dash qualified for the State Track Meet; and the Estherville Invitational track meet at which Estherville tied for second place.

Jack Miller of SUI was the guest speaker at the Athletic Banquet honoring all athletes.

Golf Record Made and

With four returning lettermen, the 1966 golf season was a bright one. The lettermen were seniors, Tom Moklestad and Tom Theophilus; junior, Steve Matre; and sophomore, Roger Ledebuhr.

Participating in 7 dual meets, 1 triangular meet, the sectional district, and conference meets, Estherville faired well. The team won five and lost two dual meets, placed second in the triangular, second in the sectional, third in the district and third in the conference.

The B-squad won two and lost two meets.

A new school record was made for 18 holes. A total of 311 was shot in the conference meet. Randy Hillman, freshman, shot a sub-par game during the season.

Variety for E-Club

1965-1966 E-Club was headed by officers who planned a careful agenda for the year.

The group again took charge of the year's Homecoming coronation. They also chose 5 senior E-Clubbers to serve as king candidates for the annual GRA Snowball Dance.

Sports Night, sponsored by the E-Club and GRA provided fun and laughter for all when the Faculty Flashes met the E-Club in a basketball game. Despite the crowd's anticipation, the Flashes came out victorious.

As in past years, senior members closed the year with their trip to the Drake Relays in Des Moines.

E-Club officers: Jim Fraser, Bill Carlson, Craig Neppl.

World News—1965

1 Humanitarian Dies—Dr. Albert Schweitzer died in September at Lambarene, his primitive hospital at the African jungle outpost of Gabon. The famed physician, who reached his 90th birthday in January, worked most of his life to relieve the suffering of jungle natives.

2 Queen Speaks—Queen Elizabeth II dedicated the John F. Kennedy memorial at Runnymede, England on May 14. Mrs. Kennedy is seated to the left and Prince Philip to the right of the queen. Carolyn Kennedy is seated between the queen and her mother, and Sen. Robert Kennedy stands behind Mrs. Kennedy.

3 Miss Universe—The reigning queen of beauty in the universe during the year was a representative from Thailand.

4 Bosch Returns—Former Dominican Republic President Juan Bosch was vehement in his address at a rally September 25, shortly after his return to Santo Domingo.

5 Wins in Run-Off—Charles deGaulle polled 55.2 per cent of the vote in a run-off election against Francois Mitterrand on December 19. The vote gave DeGaulle the French presidency for another 7 years, but the strength of the Socialist-Communistic candidate corroded the popularity of the 71-year-old president..

6 Agrees to Cease-Fire—Pakistani Foreign Minister Zulfikar Bhutto (right) agreed in the U.N. Security Council on September 22 to accept the Council's cease-fire order in the undeclared war between Pakistan and India. Pakistan's announcement came after India had agreed to the order.

7 Abortive Coup Fails—Indonesian President Sukarno was toppled from power for a brief 20 hours last fall. He gestured at a cabinet meeting on October 6 during his first public appearance after the coup, which seriously shook his one-man rule.

8 Soviet Winner—Russian author Mikhail Sholokhov was vacationing in the Ural region on October 18 when he heard he had been awarded the 1965 Nobel Prize for Literature. The December award ceremony was held in Stockholm.

9 Return to Desolation—Hundreds of families returned to the wreckage of their homes, destroyed by eruption of Taal volcano, south of Manila, on September 28. Volcanic ash covered a six-mile-square area. The death toll was estimated at 500.

10 Price of War—The number of casualties increased as the U.S. stepped up its military action in Vietnam. American advisors took part in many helicopter missions, carrying wounded soldiers, both Vietnamese and American, to copters on makeshift litters for evacuation to Saigon.

11 Reason to Celebrate—Chancellor Ludwig Erhard of West Germany waved to a cheering crowd in Bonn after his Christian Democrats surged to victory in the September 19 parliamentary elections. Mayor Willy Brandt's Social Democrats suffered defeat in the voting.

12 Colonial Rule Shaken—Rhodesian Premier Ian Smith broadcast a proclamation of sovereign independence for Rhodesia on November 11. The split from Britain was made in an attempt to insure a white minority rule of the African colony. It was the first such move against Britain since the American colonies broke away in 1776. Britain retaliated swiftly and took the problem to the U.N. Security Council, which asked all nations to enforce an oil embargo against the African colony.
